

The Feast of The Seven Fishes

It is customary in Italy during the Christmas holiday to serve seafood, drink wine and celebrate family and friends around the dinner table.

At Piero's

is now a tradition to serve a special menu that feature not only the seven fishes as the seven Sacraments...

but also a variety of specials that fulfill the non seafood eaters.

-Maine Lobster Bisque

Rich, delicious Lobster bisque & Lobster Crostino

-Mussels Puttanesca style

Prince Edward Mussels simmered in Puttanesca Sauce

-Porcupine Scallops

Diver Sea scallops wrapped in Phillo with cognac Cream and spinach

-Calamari e Fagioli

-Braised Baby calamari with cannellini beans white wine and san Marzano tomato, With Garlic Crostino

Cioppino della casa

Assorted seafood and light white wine crushed tomato and Catch of the day

Baccala'

-Baccala & Polenta with olives, tomato & Italian parsley

Risotto del Pescatore

Citrus risotto with assorted seafood with light Lemon Butter sauce

Buon Natale!